Module Lessons

Welcome to the Stronger as One Mental Health First Aid Instructor Orientation Module. The estimated time to complete the module from start to finish is approximately one hour. However, this module is intended to be a resource that enables you to pick and choose the specific content you need, when you need it. This module is divided into eight separate lessons, listed in chronological order (see Table 1). For example, you would need to set up a course before adding your course participants.

Each lesson contains the following components:

Note: There is no video content index for the Stronger as One Introduction video.

Knowledge Checks

The Stronger as One Mental Health First Aid Instructor Orientation Module contains multiple opportunities for you to assess your learning throughout the course.

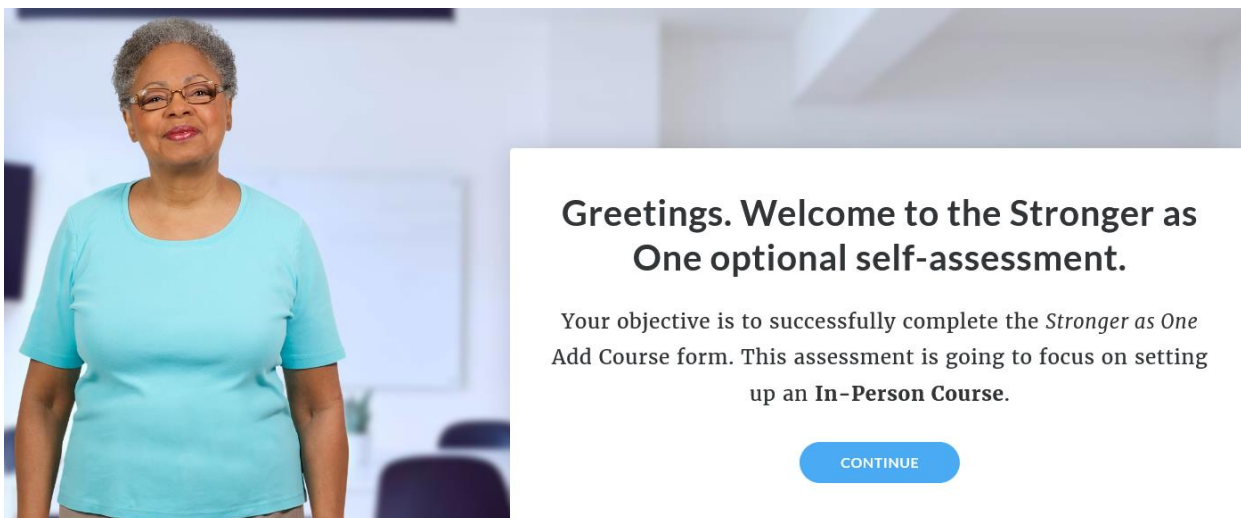

Quizzes

At the end of each lessons, there is a small quiz of 3-4 questions. These quizzes can be:

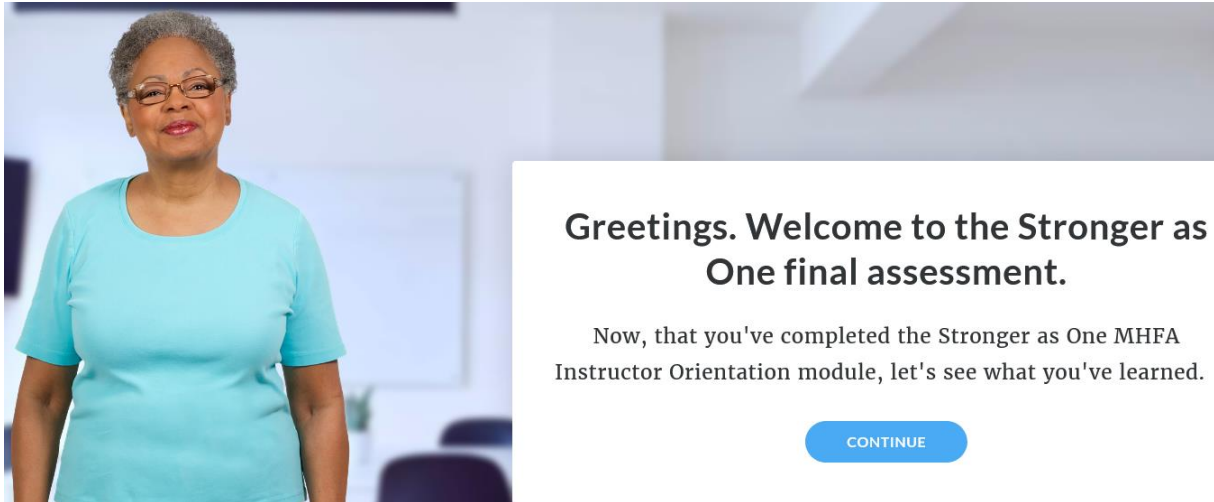

Self-Assessment

Between Lesson IV Setting Up a Blended Course and Lesson V Adding Course Participants, there is an optional self-assessment on how to set up an In-Person Course. This is an opportunity for you to evaluate how much you know about setting up a course before continuing with the subsequent courses. You can take this self-assessment whenever and as often as you need. This assessment contains 12 questions and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete.

End-Of-Course Summative Assessment

At the end of the course, you have the opportunity to take an End-Of-Course Summative Assessment. This will give you an idea of your strengths as well as where there might still be gaps in your understanding of the MHFA orientation process. You can take this self-assessment whenever and as often as you need. This assessment contains 12 questions and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete.

Post-Module Survey

Finally, Stronger as One asks that you complete a Post-Module Survey. This survey is intended to give valuable feedback to the SAO team, so that they can make this course as effective as possible. This survey contains 12 questions and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete.
